

FAIRVIEW™

DEFINING ARCHITECTURE SINCE 1988

The previous holding company of the Fairview business worked closely with solicitors for the class claimants, to ensure that claimants have access to insurance policies should a claim be substantiated. The total insurance proceeds available under these policies is potentially up to $190 million. Any action against the former holding company does not affect the current structure or operations of the FVA Group, the new owners of Fairview.